Silverstrands Guest House

7 Broadstone Avenue, Inverness, IV2 3LE

CCL is delighted to bring to market Silverstrands Guest House, situated in a tranquil residential area a short distance from Inverness City Centre, Raigmore Hospital and the main A9 road. This modern home has seven bedrooms and is delightfully appointed with many contemporary features with excellent furnishing and décor throughout. This sale represents an ideal opportunity to purchase a wonderful guest house or could be utilised as this as a residential home.

Silverstrands Guest House occupies an excellent position within close proximity to Raigmore Hospital, Inshes Retail Park, and Beechwood Business Park. Inverness is commonly regarded as both the commercial and tourist capital of the Highlands and provides a range of amenities, shopping facilities and leisure services for tourists and locals alike and can be reached in 5 minutes. There is a global market for tourism in Inverness and the surrounding Highlands and as such many visitors seek accommodation within the city. Attractions on offer include the Whisky Trail, Loch Ness and many historical points of interest. Perhaps the most enticing feature for the global tourism trade is the exceptional scenery on offer in the surrounding area ranging from sandy beaches to striking mountains and lochs. Crucially at Silverstrands Guest House parking is provided for a high proportion of guests looking to venture by car. Transport options are excellent with Inverness having a central railway station offering direct transport across Scotland and a dedicated sleeper service to London. Inverness airport 8 miles to the North East of Inverness offers a number of domestic and European flights whilst the A82 or A9 both offer direct roads to the North and South.
