Situation

The property is situated on the south side of Bogton Place, a short distance from the centre of Forres. The surrounding area contains mainly ground floor retail usage with residential or commercial usage on the upper floors. A range of high street shops, small retailers, cafes, restaurants, and leisure facilities are on offer in the vicinity.

Forres is a formal Royal Burgh and this traditional town boasts a tourist trade and hospitality sector, offering a range of activities and entertainment to locals and visitors; including hiking and cycling and fishing. There is an 18 hole golf course and the attractive coastline is just a couple of miles away. There are museums, monuments, and castles nearby and Forres is also located on the renowned Whisky Trail with its many active distilleries. The town has an active community and an attractive High Street, with close connections to Scotland and Britain in Bloom ensuring the public areas and parks are immaculately maintained and beautifully presented.

The town is located along the A96 and is extremely well serviced with good road and rail networks providing links to Inverness, Aberdeen and their respective airports. The nearby town of Elgin provides extensive retail offerings in addition to a wealth of recreational, cultural and leisure activities.
