CCL Property are delighted to bring to market the Station Hotel in Burghead with its 5 letting rooms, public bar and restaurant and owners accommodation. Our client has maintained and upgraded the premises to a high standard with all letting rooms recently redecorated. The Station Hotel is one of the few places where guests can sit out and enjoy the amazing coastal views and one of only a few establishments to offer lunches and evening meals. The Hotel also has its own website which provides more details about the hotel itself and local area. <http://stationhotelburghead.co.uk>

Situation

The Station Hotel occupies a prime trading position on the seafront and next to the attractive beach in this delightful residential coastal village, which is built on a peninsula projecting into the Moray Firth. There is ample on-street parking in the vicinity and all amenities are close by. Burghead lies approximately 8 miles north west of Elgin. Elgin is a prosperous market town 65 miles from Aberdeen and 35 miles from Inverness. Moray has a relatively diverse economy with tourism, food processing, hospitality and retail sectors providing major sources of employment. There is also a significant MOD presence. The area is easily accessible with the A96 approximately 5 miles away. As you look over the Firth from the promontory you can see the wide arm of water stretching towards the North Sea and to the West towards Dornoch, Cromarty and Beaulieu Firths, you may be lucky enough to see seals, dolphins or even a minke whale. Burghead has a lot to offer both resident and visitors with its excellent beach, far reaching views, abundance of flora, fauna and bird life, golf, walking, mountain biking, whiskey tasting on the whiskey trail and salmon fishing on the River Spey. There is a large Malting's where the grain used in the production of whisky is prepared, so one might say that this is the real start of the famous 'Whisky Trail', which winds its way through the very heart of Moray.

Property

The stairs from the main hall leads up to the 5 letting bedrooms and guest lounge. On the first floor there are 2 double bedrooms with en suites and a substantial family room with en suite. On the upper floor there are 2 additional rooms, a triple and a twin room. These two rooms benefit from a large and luxurious bathroom on the first floor. All rooms have been tastefully upgraded and have flat screen TV's with satellite. Leading from the main stairs is a door through to the Private Owners Accommodation. This offers the new owners great flexibility in how it is used. Currently there are four large double bedrooms, a large kitchen and dining area. Depending on owners requirement some of these bedrooms would be easily converted to additional letting rooms. The Station Hotel would suit a couple either on their own or with a family. The accommodation is very secure and would be suitable for young children.

The main bar area has a separate entrance with a corridor that leads to the toilets and Public Bar with 2 x sofas, various tables and chairs, plasma TV, pool table, cigarette machine, jukebox, games machine. Both bars are very well equipped.

To the right of the reception area is the main formal dining room. This has 28 covers and is very well presented with deep carpets and warm decor.
