Situation

This business is located in the Dennistoun area of Glasgow, offering easy access to local amenities and public transport routes. A plethora of shops, grocers, eateries, and restaurants are conveniently situated nearby. Glasgow, Scotland's largest city, is renowned for its vibrant metropolis, characterized by stunning Victorian architecture, bustling streets, and a thriving arts scene. The property's proximity to the city centre provides seamless access to transportation, green spaces, and entertainment options, catering to an ideal urban lifestyle.

The Business

The business is a well-established guest house, featuring 14 letting rooms comprising single, twin, double, and family accommodations, with 7 rooms offering en-suite facilities. Room rates range from £35 to £120 per night, catering to tourists and contractors alike. Boasting its private car park, the business is easily managed and enjoys popularity within the area. The property's expansive plot allows for potential expansion or standalone accommodation development.

Property

The property is a splendid Victorian semi-detached house adorned with original features, including ornate cornicing and ceiling roses. The property has been tastefully extended at the rear to provide additional accommodation. Upon entering through the front door, guests are welcomed into the main reception area leading to three well-appointed double en-suite letting rooms. Towards the rear lies the dining room, which opens to a rear hall granting access to the modern, well-equipped kitchen, laundry, and shared bathroom. The first floor hosts five letting rooms, including a family room, double room, and single en-suites, complemented by a shared bathroom. The second floor features three single rooms with a shared bathroom.

External

Large plot with secure parking to the front and rear. Site is suitable for development.
